God has a plan for this world.

// Main Points

- Let God set you apart
  - Acts 13:1-3
  - We are all called to share the Gospel with all people, yet we are uniquely set apart to spread the Gospel to reach every people.
- Not all will understand.
  - John 16:16-18
  - The world will always have plans for you that are different than what God's plan is for you.
  - We are not called to ignore God
    - Jonah 1:1-3
- The world needs Jesus - not you

- Mark 16:15-18
- When we go on a missions trip, we have to remember, “I’m not the savior of that nation or that city. I’m introducing a people to a savior and I am merely His child.”
- Acts 19:11-17

// Discussion Questions

1. What has God set me apart for?
2. If accepting Jesus were easy, would we have more Christians? Would we have more Christians’ living sinless lives? If listening to Jesus were easy, would we have more Christians? What motivations come out of understanding that we are called to live a life that isn’t always easy?
3. What does it look like to know where God has set you apart?
4. What is a time where you’ve ignored God or something you know you should have done and how things resolved when you went back to do it?
5. What are ways you can remember when sharing the Gospel that this is always about Jesus?
